

Appendix E

Worksheets for the Bottom-up Group

WS 1-1

Class: 五._____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

There is a shopping mall in the center of my town. There are more than one hundred stores in the mall. There is a laundromat, a video store and a bookstore. There are many clothing stores for men and children. There are five restaurants and two cafeterias. There are two snack shops and there is even a big movie theater. Almost everyone likes the shopping mall. I usually go to see a movie and have lunch in the mall. Sometimes I rent a video and buy some books.

WS 2-1

Class: 五._____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word you hear.

Nancy's apartment building is in the center of town.

Next to	Across
---------	--------

from	Around the corner from
------	------------------------

 the apartment building, there is a bank, a post office and a clinic. There are two

restrooms	schools	restaurants
-----------	---------	-------------

 next to the building. There is a book store between the apartment building and the health club. The neighborhood is very noisy	expensive	nasty

-------	-----------	-------

.

There are a lot of people

on	in	at
----	----	----

 the sidewalks day and night. But it is a very convenient place. Nancy is

happy	upset	frustrated
-------	-------	------------

 about her apartment.

WS 3-1

Class: 五._____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

Anna is in her bathroom now. She is looking for something to wear to school, but there is nothing in her closet.

She wants a pair of stockings, but some her stockings are in the washing machine. She wants a clean jacket, but all her skirts are ripped. She wants a different shirt, but all her shirts are at the dry cleaner's. Poor Anna! She is angry because there's nothing for her to wear.

WS 4-1

Class: 五._____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

Tom is looking for some birthday gifts for his family. He is looking for a brown wallet, but all the wallets are black and white. He is looking for a blue jacket, but all the jackets are either yellow or purple. He is looking for a wool shirt, but all the sweaters are cotton. Tom is very frustrated. He is looking for gifts for his friends, but he is having a lot of trouble.

WS 6-1

Class: 五. _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word you hear.

There is a big sale in the K-Mall. Everything is cheap and good. In Aisle
 , there are . In Aisle 6, there are
. In Aisle 1, there are . In Aisle
 , there are .

WS 7-1

Class: 五. _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

Emma's apartment is in a beautiful neighborhood. There's a big, convenient bank next to her apartment building. Across from the building, there is a laundromat, a vide store and a bus stop. There are also many bookstores and restaurants in her neighborhood. It is a very convenient place and Emma likes her neighborhood.

WS 8-1

Class: 五. _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word you hear.

My name is Sue. I live in . I work in a
 . My best friend lives in . She
 . My sister and brother live in Buffalo, they work in . What about your best friend and your family?

WS 9-1

Class: 五. _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee live in an old neighborhood in San Francisco. They speak a little English, but they usually speak Chinese.

They read Chinese newspaper. They watch Chinese TV programs. And they shop at Chinese supermarkets. Their daughter, May, lives in a small apartment outside the city. She speaks a little Chinese, but she usually speaks English. She only speaks Chinese when she calls her parents on the phone. Mr. and Mrs. Lee are upset that their daughter is forgetting her culture, her language and her old country.

WS 11-1

Class: 五._____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word you hear.

Jason is a very active boy. On Monday, he in the park. On , he for his aunt. On Thursday, he . On Saturday, he goes dancing. And on Sunday, he with his grandparents.

WS 13-1

Class: 五._____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

Joyce is a young girl. She plays volleyball with her friend very often. On Monday, she does homework. On Tuesday, she rides a bike. On Wednesday, she jogs. She goes to movies every Friday, and she visits her friends on the weekend. Joyce is a very outgoing person, and she is very popular.

WS 14-1

Class: 五. _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word you hear.

Sam is a very person. He usually stays at home.

He doesn't . He usually at home. And he watches TV

very . He likes jazz and

.

WS 15-1

Class: 五. _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

Circle the word that is different from what you hear.

There are some musical programs on TV. On Monday, there is one of rock music. On Tuesday, it's about popular music. On Wednesday, there are a lot of singers singing country songs. I like to watch these programs, but my sister doesn't. She likes to watch news programs, and she reads a lot of short stories. We are very different.