Please answer all questions in English only. No point will be given if you answer in other languages.

1. The Telegraph's article "Beware Self-fulfilling Prophecy of Crashing Markets, IMF Warns as Growth is Cut Again" (January 16, 2016) ends with IMF Chief Economist Maurice Obstfeld's words "We may be in for a bumpy ride this year." Try to answer with major possibilities and your fact-based imagination why this news and Obstfeld would make arguments concerning the 2016 world economy that way. (30%)
2. United States Vice President Joe Biden said that "long accused of hedging its bets with the Islamic State and allowing passage across its border, Turkey has 'taken some very important steps to improve' the situation," and that "American and coalition aircraft... have 'ramped up the air campaign against ISIL targets to the highest tempo since the beginning' of the airstrikes in the fall of 2014." (Washington Post, January 23, 2016) Comment on his statement from international politics and international security perspectives. (25%)
3. What are the principal results of last year's "Doha Round" negotiations? Illustrate the achievements and obstacles. (25%)
4. Use up to 100 English words to spell out and account for the following commonly used terms in world affairs:
 - (1) O.S.C.E. (10%)
 - (2) U.N.F.C.C.C. (10%)
