INSAR Virtual - Autistic Researchers Committee Workshop

The newly appointed Autistic Researchers Committee (ARC) of INSAR held a workshop in August 2020 to briefly introduce their committee and gather suggestions from the community regarding their future directions and plans as they strive to promote autistic involvement in research and the inclusiveness of INSAR. They welcomed all interested attendees, whether they are researchers or community members and whether they are neurodivergent or neurotypical.

The live workshop was be repeated twice, to encourage participation across time zones.
