

Acknowledgements

I owe a debt of gratitude to many people. First of all, my warmest thanks go to my advisor Professor Yin-I Chen, who has initiated me into the studies of postmodern urban spatiality in contemporary London novels. During my thesis writing, Professor Chen had a lot of patience to answer my questions about the thesis and to offer me valuable suggestions, which helped complete my thesis step by step.

To the members of the committee, besides my advisor, I want to thank Professor Tsui-fen Jiang for her careful reading of the manuscript, which helps organize the ideas in a more coherent way. In addition, I appreciate her curricular instructions during my study of the MA program. I also want to thank Professor Frank Waddell Stevenson for his questions raised in the oral defense, which inspire me to think of further research on some related issues.

My gratitude is also extended to Professor Chin-yuan Hu for giving me an opportunity to act as an editorial assistant of Taiwan Journal of English Literature (Volume Three) published by our department, so I have the chance to be familiar with the editorial process. Moreover, I appreciate both Professor Chien-chi Liu's and Professor Li-min Yang's instructions during my serving as the editorial assistant. I also want to thank Professor Shuan-hung Wu for giving me an opportunity to attend his 2006 undergraduate courses "Literary Theory and Cultural Criticism" and "Topics in Cultural Studies." Both classes have amplified my theoretical background.

I want to thank my classmates and friends for their encouragement and help during my study at National Chengchi University: Shao-wei, Ting-jia, Ling-yu, Pao-han, Yu-chun, Yu-ping, and Yi-chin. I will always remember those blissful and memorable days that we've ever had together. More friends are deserving of thanks than I have space to mention here. I will leave some of you out, but please be sure to remind me at every opportunity for the rest of my life.

最後，我要感謝我的父母和家人。感謝父母提供經濟支援，使我忙於學校課業之際，不必再為生計及學費奔波，雖然他們不瞭解我在研究什麼、或在學校學些什麼，但總是放心地讓我做我想做的事情、一旁默默地支持我。感謝姊姊不定時地詢問我論文何時完成，無形中督促我論文寫作的進度。謝謝姪兒天真的笑容，讓我暫時忘卻壓力，彷彿又回到小時候那段無慮的歲月。*
