Guide to Study (2) Teacher's edition

Plan thoroughly before studying abroad. Listen now to ICRT's "Guide to Study in Britain" to help you make informed choices.

*As a parent you naturally want the best school for your child, such as a prestigious private English boarding school. But how do you go about choosing the right one? Your safest bet would be to hire a professional consultant that has years of experience to help select a school that best suits your child's needs.

But choosing a school is only the first step, as there's a wealth of paper work you must help your child prepare, including three original copies of English transcripts, teachers' recommendation letters, a copy of diploma and passport and a health exam report.

English private schools are very popular, so be sure to apply a year before the school begins. Then, if the school accepts the application, you must put down a deposit nine months earlier to secure your child's place for the new term.
