Who's afraid of thesis writing? I am. In this long and painful process, I have undergone many obstacles and have eventually come to the realization that my biggest enemy is myself. I am proud that I have accomplished this challenge.

My warmest thanks go to my advisor Professor Estelle Tsui-fen Jiang, for her inspiring guidance and encouragement throughout my research for this work. My gratitude is also extended to Professor Chien-chi Liu, for his instruction during my first two years of MA program. I am also obliged to Professor Hsiu-chih Tsai, for her insightful comments in the oral defense. For their warmest support, I want to thank Tina Yi-chun Chen, and Aray Chia-hung Wu. Last but not least, I also greatly appreciate the friendly aid from the Chair, Professor Huei-ling Lai, and the teaching assistants in the office of Department of English, particularly Betty.

Finally, I would like to dedicate my sincere gratitude to my beloved father. He made tremendous sacrifices in his life to raise me well. He will always remain in my heart.
