

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Writing this dissertation is by no means a solitary venture. It would have been impossible to finish without the efforts and support of family and friends who gave freely their time and expertise. The researcher would like to thank Almighty God for giving him the strength and wisdom to finish this task, to Him he offer this work. For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to whom be glory forever. Amen (Rom. 11:36).

The Ministry of Education “Taiwan’s Scholarship” Program, for providing the researcher the financial support during his three years of studies in the National Chengchi University, Taipei, Taiwan. Dr. Joseph M. C. Chin (秦夢群 博士); Fulbright Scholar and Distinguished Professor of the Graduate Institute of Educational Administration and Policy, and Dr. Cheng Ta Wu (吳政達 博士); Professor and Director of the Graduate Institute of Educational Administration and Policy, for their commendable guidance, untiring effort and support. To the dissertation committee chairperson; Dr. Ru Jer Wang (王如哲 博士), Professor of the Department of Education, National Taiwan Normal University and former Vice-President, Di Wan University, former Director of the Graduate Institute of Education, National Chung Cheng University. Committee members: Dr. Chih Cheng Lin (林志成 博士); Professor of the Department of Education, National Hsinchu University of Education, and Dr. Chao Yu Guo (郭昭佑 博士); Professor of the Graduate School of Arts and Humanities Instruction, and Section Chief, University Secretariat of the National Taiwan University of Arts. Lastly, Dr. Amy Roberts; Professor, University of Wyoming, College of Education; whose guidance and encouragement help make this research a possibility.